Cast, Crew and Crazies

The Gridiron Show is presented through a partnership between:

The Society of Professional Journalists is the nation's largest organization of student and working journalists with 9,000 members. SPJ seeks to raise the competence of its members, to recognize outstanding accomplishments, to attract new talent, to protect freedom of information and to elevate the prestige of journalism.

The American Association of University Women consists of 130,000 college graduates across the United States. There are 1,300 local branches. The Fayetteville Branch contributed $6,500 to the Association's Educational Foundation and Legal Advocacy Fund, scholarships for the UA and the Single Parent Scholarships.
